

Please forgive this rather negative note.

It is my belief that Connecticut state spending is on a run-a-way train that seems to be a mirror image in microcosm of our national spending.

Please don't increase taxes.

Forget the tolls: manage better.

Respectfully submitted,

Ron Hunley